Two Charged with Beating Teen at Rolling Hills Estates Mall Parking Lot

Two 18-year-old men have been charged with beating and robbing another young man in a parking structure at a mall in Rolling Hills Estates, the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office announced today.

Korey Oscar Benjamin Streeter (dob 10/23/00) of Long Beach and Alexander Bell-Wilson (dob 10/31/00) of Rolling Hills both are charged with one count each of second-degree robbery and assault by means of force likely to produce great bodily injury.

Arraignment is scheduled tomorrow in Department 4 of the Los Angeles County Superior Court, Torrance Branch.

Deputy District Attorney Lindsay Kurtis said case YA100112 was filed for warrant against Streeter yesterday.

On March 22, the defendants allegedly assaulted the 18-year-old victim and took his phone, the prosecutor said. The victim and the two defendants knew each other prior to the attack, the prosecutor added.

Streeter and Bell-Wilson face a possible maximum sentence of five years in state prison if convicted as charged.

The case remains under investigation by the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department, Lomita Station.
